

STUDENTS IN MACHINE TECHNOLOGY AT VIRGINIA HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY COLLEGE RECEIVE CERTIFICATE IN LEAN SIX SIGMA YELLOW BELT

APRIL 2018

VHCC Machine Technology Students in the 6-week Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt class conducted by MTC:

The Manufacturing Technology Center (MTC) concluded a 6-week Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt course to Virginia Highland's Community College's (VHCC) Machine Technology Class on April 19, 2018. Students who chose to participate were Madison Qualls, Benjamin Sly, Benjamin Reynolds, Jeremy Sizemore, Zachary Wise, Johnnie Keene, Jr., and Joseph Graves.

The LSS Yellow Belt is perfect for students or employees who seek to improve their knowledge base of Six Sigma and the define, measure, analyze, improve and control model (DMAIC). This train-and-do process uses classroom activities, combining lecture and simulation exercises. The Certified Six Sigma Yellow Belt Primer, cost of the ASQ certification exam, one year subscription to ASQ and exam preparation for certification was included in this course. Congratulations to each student for expanding their education and achieving this certificate. We wish them the best of luck on their ASQ exam and all future endeavors.
